

SPECIAL ISSUE LAUNCH

UNIVERSITÄT
BIELEFELD

GESCHLECHT ALS
Graduiertenkolleg des IZG
ER
(...)
FAHRUNG
SIE

MOTHERING PRACTICES IN TIMES OF LEGAL PRECARITY: ACTIVISM, CARE AND RESISTANCE IN DISPLACEMENT

27 April 2023

4 - 6 PM

X Building X-B2-103
(BGHS)

This event launches the Special Issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies “Mothering practices in times of legal precarity: activism, care and resistance in displacement” (Vol. 46, No. 2). The editors and contributors will present the Special Issue and individual articles exploring the ways in which mothering practices, legal precarity and gendered racialization interconnect in migrant women’s lives.

SPEAKERS

Elisa Lanari, Max-Planck-Institute for the Study of Religious and Ethnic Diversity

Mengia Tschalär, Brunel University London/
City University of New York

Magdalena Suerbaum, Bielefeld University

Image by Michael Adonai

DISCUSSANT

Inka Stock, Bielefeld University

Further information:

<https://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rers20/46/2>

The event will take place in hybrid form.

To register please email:

Magdalena.suerbaum@uni-bielefeld.de